

YEAR 11 Autumn 1

'An ambitious curriculum that meets the needs of all'

Medium Term Planning - Topic: Christian Practices

Curriculum Intent	Why do we teach this to students? Students study this as part of their GCSE Religious Studies. This topic is part of a wider study of Christianity which includes Christian beliefs and practices. It is the compulsory religion taught at GCSE alongside Judaism and it allows students to complete their GCSE Paper 1. We teach this to students to allow them to fully understand the Christian faith. They study the teachings and practices of Christianity and their basis in Christian sources of wisdom and authority. Why do we teach this now? We teach this unit now as it needs to be delivered after the Christian beliefs' topic. Christian and Jewish Beliefs were taught in Y9 and 10. Following the study of beliefs we now deliver the practices part of the course. Specification aims: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• develop their knowledge and understanding of religions and non-religious beliefs, such as atheism and humanism</li> <li>• develop their knowledge and understanding of religious beliefs, teachings and sources of wisdom and authority, including through their reading of key religious texts, other texts and scriptures of the religions they are studying</li> <li>• develop their ability to construct well-argued, well-informed, balanced and structured written arguments, demonstrating their depth and breadth of understanding of the subject</li> <li>• reflect on and develop their own values, belief, meaning, purpose, truth and their influence on human life</li> <li>• reflect on and develop their own values, beliefs and attitudes in the light of what they have learnt and contribute to their preparation for adult life in a pluralistic society and global community.</li> </ul> Assessment Objectives: AO1: Demonstrate a knowledge and understanding of religion and beliefs including: - beliefs, practices and sources of authority - influence on individuals, communities and societies - similarities and differences within and/or between religions and beliefs. AO2: Analyse and evaluate aspects of religion and belief, including their significance and influence The assessment objectives are weighted 50:50 in the exam.
Skills/Assessment objective links
Spiritual, moral, social, and cultural development	SMSC: Spiritual: The ability to be reflective about their own beliefs, religious or otherwise, that inform their perspective on life and their interest in and respect for different people's faiths, feelings and values. A sense of enjoyment and fascination in learning about themselves, others and the world around them. Moral: acceptance and engagement with the fundamental British values: individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs; they develop and demonstrate skills and attitudes that will allow them to participate fully in and contribute positively to life in modern Britain. Cultural: understanding and appreciation of the range of different cultures within school and further afield as an essential element of their preparation for life in modern Britain. PSHE: Tackling religious discrimination British Values: Individual liberty, mutual respect and tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs. Skills Builder: Listening, speaking, problem solving, creativity, staying positive, aiming high, leadership and teamwork
Numeracy	Students have the opportunity to explore numbers in the church and the church calendar.
Literacy	Vocabulary Tier 2: explain, similar, contrasting, contemporary, informal, private, Vocabulary Tier 3: worship, liturgical, non-liturgical, prayer, sacrament, believer's baptism, infant baptism, Holy Communion, eucharist, pilgrimage, festival, Christmas, easter, church, agape, mission, evangelism, reconciliation, persecution Reading: Students have the opportunity to read religious texts. They will summarise teachings, ideas, arguments etc. This also allows students the opportunity to clarify - discussion of any words or ideas that the student didn't understand. Writing: RS GCSE is a literacy based subject. Students are supported in developing their answers to explain the beliefs and impacts of those beliefs. Students are also working on developing contrasting arguments to evaluate the ideas raised. This written work takes the form of 4,5 and 12 mark answers. Oracy: Students need to be able to articulate their own ideas and beliefs as well as discuss this with other students. Then sharing of ideas through discussion allows students to understand different points of view. Questioning of their points of view also allows them to develop their reasoning so that their arguments can stand up to scrutiny.
Becoming future ready	RS students develop: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- the ability to build and interrogate arguments and how to question and evaluate narratives</li> <li>- critical thinking skills and the ability to interpret information, formulate questions and solve problems</li> <li>- organisational and time management skills</li> <li>- teamworking and communication skills</li> <li>- writing skills, including accurate referencing and the ability to construct a reasoned argument</li> <li>- empathy and the ability to understand people and their motivations</li> <li>- the ability to appreciate different perspectives and take on board others' views</li> <li>- the ability to work methodically and accurately</li> <li>- independence of mind and the ability to think for yourself.</li> </ul>
Adaptation	Throughout this topic, quality first teaching will provide differentiation:
QFT/SEND Provision	By product: differential outcomes using must, could, should. By resource: PowerPoints have different levels of differentiation to access, 'key points' extension, stretch and challenge. By Intervention: by providing different levels of supervision and support, revision drop ins, catch up sessions. By Progressive Questioning: exploring pupils' understanding through interactive dialogue. By Grouping: according to prior attainment, gender and behaviour By Task: Many tasks are scaffolded to support students, where there is a choice of task students are supported in choosing the task which will best support them to achieve their ability. By Offering Optional Activities: In class or as homework, to extend learning.
